MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Western Hemisphere Division

SUBJECT : Required Physical Examination of Dependents

REFERENCE : [REDACTED] Paragraph 2b(2), dated
10 March 1958

25X1A

1. The referenced regulation provides opportunity for your Office to identify overseas stations and bases in your area of responsibility which, in your opinion, require the medical examination of dependents prior to overseas travel.

2. The Medical Staff is currently initiating the medical examination program for dependents in accordance with the provisions of the basic regulation. It is requested that you indicate to this Office those Agency field installations within your jurisdiction which, in your opinion, will require dependent examinations prior to departure. We would be happy to discuss with you various geographic medical factors pertinent to this selection, if you so desire.
